Robert J. Coleman

Rob Coleman is an experienced transactional attorney whose areas of practice include estate planning, real estate transactions, and corporate and nonprofit governance.

As a skilled and dedicated trusts and estates attorney, Rob works with each client to develop a comprehensive and personalized estate plan based on their individual needs, best interests, and personal values.

Rob has served as corporate counsel to a variety of California and Nevada-based companies, including a residential mortgage bank, and escrow company, a sports nutrition distributor and retailer, and several nonprofits. He also served as an estate and gift planning attorney for Pepperdine University.

Rob is a graduate of the University of California Berkeley with a bachelor's degree in History, and a graduate of Pepperdine University School of Law.

Rob met his wife Erin when they were students at Pepperdine Law. The Colemans are proud, active, and dedicated alumni. They are also active members of their parish community, St Therese of Lisieux in Alhambra.
